

FIRST BARUCH

CHAPTER 2

CHAPTER 1

And these are the accounts of the book which Baruch, son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah, son of Zedekiah, son of Hasadiah, son of Hilkiah, wrote in¹ Babel, 2 in the fifth year, on the seventh day of the month, at the season when the Chaldeans took Jerusalem and burnt it with fire.

3 And Baruch read the accounts of this scroll to Jeconiah, son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, to hear it, as well as to all the people who came to hear the book, 4 and the powerful men, and the kings' sons, the elders, and all the people, small and great alike—all who lived in Babel by the river Soud.² 5 And they were weeping and fasting and praying before Yahweh,³ 6 and collected silver, each one giving what he was able to give.

7 And they sent these things to Jerusalem, to Jehoiakim, son of Hilkiah, son of Shallum the priest, and to the priests, and to all the people who were with him in Jerusalem. 8 (This was when he received the vessels of the house of Yahweh which had been removed from the inner-sanctum, in order to restore them to the land of Judah, on the tenth of Sivan.⁴ These silver vessels Zedekiah, son of Josiah, king of Judah, had made 9 after Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babel, carried off Jeconiah, and the chiefs, and the skilled workers,⁵ and the powerful men, and the people of the land from Jerusalem, as captives, and brought them⁶ to Babel.)

10 And they said:

We send you silver. And use the silver to procure holocausts, sin offerings, and frankincense, and to prepare manna. And offer these on the sacrificial-altar of Yahweh our God. 11 And pray for the life of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babel, and for the life of his son Belshazzar, that their days may equal the duration of the heavens⁷ above the earth; 12 and that Yahweh *our God*⁸ may give us strength and light to our eyes, and that we may live under the protective shadow of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babel, and the shadow of his son Belshazzar, and be enslaved to them for many days, and find favor in their sight.

13 And pray to Yahweh our God concerning us, because we have sinned against Yahweh our God, and the fury and the anger of Yahweh have not yet been withdrawn from us to the present day. 14 And publicly read out this book which we are sending to you, in the house of Yahweh,⁹ on a festival day¹⁰ and during seasonal days.¹¹

15 And say: The righteousness belongs to Yahweh our God! But to this day, our faces are flushed with shame, 16 because we, humans of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, with our kings and our chiefs and our priests and our prophets and our fathers, 17 have sinned¹² in the presence of Yahweh *our God*¹³ and disobeyed him. 18 And we have neither heeded the voice of Yahweh our God, nor followed the commands which Yahweh set before our face.

19 From the day which Yahweh led our fathers out of the land of Egypt until the present day, we have been disobedient to Yahweh our God, and only too ready¹⁴ to disregard his voice. 20 And even to this day, the¹⁵ evils and the curse were glued to us, namely those which Yahweh enjoined upon his servant Moses on the day when he led our fathers out of the land of Egypt to give us a land flowing with milk and honey.

21 And we did not heed the voice of Yahweh our God, in all the accounts of the prophets whom he¹⁶ sent to us, 22 and each of us went off after the intent of our own wicked hearts, serving other gods, and doing what is evil in the sight of Yahweh our God.

And Yahweh fulfilled the account which he had uttered against us, and against our judges who judged Israel and Judah,¹⁷ and against our kings and our chiefs, and against the humans of Israel and Judah. 2 He brought evils down upon us so great, that nowhere else under the heavens *and on the earth*¹⁸ has there been done what has been done in Jerusalem,¹⁹ as was written in the law of Moses: 3 that among us, a human should eat the flesh of his son,²⁰ and another human the flesh of his daughter. 4 And he has made us subject to all the kingdoms round about us, to be a reproach and a horror²¹ among all the surrounding peoples to which Yahweh has scattered us.²² 5 And we²³ are brought low, and not raised up, because we sinned against Yahweh our God, not heeding his voice.

6 The righteousness belongs to Yahweh our God! But the faces of we and our fathers are flushed with shame even to this day. 7 All the evils of which²⁴ Yahweh our God had uttered to us have come upon us.²⁵ 8 And we did not plead before the face of Yahweh our God,²⁶ nor did each of us turn away from the thoughts of his²⁷ own wicked heart. 9 And Yahweh kept watch over the evils, and brought them home to us; because Yahweh is righteous in all the works he instructed us to do, 10 and we did not heed his voice, in order to follow the commands of Yahweh which he set before our face.

11 And now, Yahweh, God of Israel, you who led your people out of the land of Egypt with your mighty hand, with signs and with portents and with great power, and with your upraised arm, and have made for yourself a name till the present day: 12 we have sinned, been impious, and acted unrighteously, O Yahweh our God, against all of your righteous-decrees. 13 Turn your fury away from us, because we are left few in number *and are scanty*²⁸ among the nations to where you have scattered us.

14 O Yahweh, hear our prayer and our beseeching, and deliver us for your own sake.²⁹ And grant us favor before the face of our captors, 15 so that all the earth may know that you are Yahweh our God, because Israel and his generation bear your name. 16 O Yahweh, look down from the house of the holy-one, and take thought of us. Incline your ear, O Yahweh, and listen to us. 17 Open your eyes, O Yahweh,³⁰ and behold: because it is not the dead in the Netherworld whose spirit has been taken from their insides, who will give glory and righteous-deeds to Yahweh; 18 instead, it is he whose soul is deeply grieved, who walks bowed and is weak, and who has failing eyes and a famished soul, who will declare your glory and righteousness, Yahweh!

19 Because, O Yahweh our God, it is not upon the righteous-deeds of our fathers and our kings that we base our plea for mercy before your face. 20 Because, you have brought your fury and your anger down upon us, as you had uttered to us through the hand of your boys the prophets, saying:³¹

21 'This is what Yahweh says: Bend your shoulders and work for the king of Babel, and you shall continue in the land which I gave to your fathers. 22 And if you do not heed the voice of Yahweh so as to work for the king of Babel,

23 from the cities of Judah and from the streets of³² Jerusalem,
I will silence the voices of gladness and the sounds of joyfulness,
the voice of bridegroom and the voice of bride;

24 And we did not heed your voice, or work for the king of Babel, and you fulfilled the accounts which you had made through the hands of your boys the prophets, to have the bones of our kings and the bones of our princes³³ and the bones of our fathers brought out from their burial places.³⁴ 25 And behold, they lie exposed to the heat of the day and the frost of the night. And they died in wicked anguish, by hunger and the long-sword and plague.³⁵ 26 And you have reduced the³⁶ house which bears your name to a waste of³⁷ what it is today, due to the wickedness of the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

27 And with us, O Yahweh our God, you have dealt in all your gentleness and according to all your purpose³⁸ and in all your great pity. 28 This was what you uttered through the hand of your boy Moses, on the day when you ordered him to write down your law while facing the sons of Israel, saying:

29 'If you do not heed my voice, surely this great buzzing-crowd will dwindle away and will diminish³⁹ among the nations to which I will scatter them. 30 Because I know that they will not heed me, because they are a stiff-necked people. And in the land of their captivity they shall have a change of heart; 31 and they shall know that I, Yahweh, am their God. And I will give them receptive⁴⁰ hearts, and heedful ears; 32 and they shall praise me in the land of their captivity, and shall remember my name. 33 And they shall turn back from their stubbornness, and from their wicked deeds, because they shall remember the way of their fathers who sinned against Yahweh. 34 And I will bring them back to the land which I swore to give to their fathers, to Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob; and they shall be lords of it. And I will multiply them, and they shall not be diminished. 35 And I will establish a perpetual covenant with them, that I will be their God, and they shall be my people; and I will never again remove my people Israel from the land which I have given them.'

CHAPTER 3

Yahweh Almighty, God of Israel, afflicted souls and dismayed spirits have shouted to you. 2 Hear, O Yahweh God,⁴¹ because you are a God of mercy;⁴² and have mercy on us, who have sinned against you: 3 because you are enthroned⁴³ to the age, while we are perishing to the age. 4 Yahweh Almighty, God of Israel, hear the prayer of the men⁴⁴ of Israel, the sons of those who sinned against you; they did not heed the voice of Yahweh, their⁴⁵ God, and the curses and⁴⁶ evils were glued to us. 5 At this time, do not remember the misdeeds⁴⁷ of our fathers; instead, remember your own hand and name: 6 because you are Yahweh our God; and you, O Yahweh, we will praise! 7 Because you have put the fear of you into our heart: so that when we have removed from our heart all the evils and unrighteousness of⁴⁸ our fathers who sinned against you, that we may call upon your holy⁴⁹ name, and praise you in our captivity. 8 Behold us today in our captivity, where you scattered us, a reproach, and a curse, and a derision,⁵⁰ and a punishment for all the unrighteous-deeds of our fathers, who withdrew from Yahweh our God.

listen, and know sensibleness!⁵¹

10 How is it, Israel, that you are in a land of your enemies, grown old in a foreign land, defiled with the dead,

11 accounted with those destined for the Netherworld?⁵²

12 You have⁵³ forsaken the running-water of the wisdom!

13 Had you walked in the way of God, you would have dwelt in peace to the age.

14 Learn where sensibleness is, where strength, where intelligence; that you may know also where are length of days, and life, where are light of the eyes, and peace.

15 Who has found the place of wisdom, who has entered into her storehouses?

16 Where are the chiefs of the nations,⁵⁴ and those who lorded it over the beasts of the earth,

17 those who made sport of the birds of the heavens: and those who treasured-up the silver and the gold in which humans trust; and of whose acquisition there is no end?

18 *For*⁵⁵ they scheme to get this silver, and are worried; and there is no trace⁵⁶ of their works:

19 they were eliminated and descended into the Netherworld, and others rose-up in their stead.

20 Youths saw the light, and dwelt in the earth; but the road to experience they did not know,

21 nor did they gain-insight into her⁵⁷ beaten-paths, nor reached her for themselves;

22 their sons were far from the road to her.⁵⁸ Nor was she heard of in Canaan, nor was she seen in Teman;

23 neither among the sons of Hagar who seek the intelligence on the earth, the merchants of Midian and Teman, and the mythologists and the seekers of the intelligence. These did not know a road to the wisdom, nor did they remember her paths.⁵⁹

24 O Israel, how great⁶⁰ is the house of Yahweh⁶¹ God, and how broad the place of his acquisition:

25 great and⁶² having no end, high and immeasurable!

26 In it were born the giants, those who were renowned, those who, from the beginning, after they became very-great, understood war.

27 God did not select them, nor did he give them a road of experience; and they caused themselves to perish, having no sensibleness, caused themselves to perish through their lack-of-counsel.

29 Who ascended into the heavens and took her, and brought her down out of the clouds?

30 Who stepped-through to *the other side the sea*⁶³ and found her, and bore her away rather than choice gold?

31 No one comes-to-know the road to her, nor is anyone pondering her paths.

32 Instead, the one who has known all things comes-to-know her; he invented her through his intelligence— the one who furnished the earth to last into the age, filled it up with four-footed livestock;

34 but before whom the stars shone in their watches,⁶⁵
and were made glad;
35 he called them, and they spoke, "Here we are!"
and they shone with gladness for their Maker.
36 Such is our God;
no other is to be compared to him.⁶⁶
37 He has traced out every road of experience, and gave her to Jacob, his boy,
to Israel, his beloved son.
38 After this, she⁶⁷ was seen on the earth,
and associated-with the humans among them.

CHAPTER 4

- 1 She is the book and memorial⁶⁸ of the ordinances of God,
and the law, the law which exists into the age;
all of those who grasp her will go into life,
but those who leave her behind will make themselves die.
2 Turn and incline,⁶⁹ O Jacob, and take-hold-of her for yourself:
travel by her light toward splendor.
3 May you not give your glory⁷⁰ to another,
and your collective-benefits⁷¹ to a foreign nation.
4 Happy are we, O Israel;
because the things pleasing to God are known to us!⁷²
5 Take courage, my⁷³ people,
O memorial of Israel!
6 It was not for your* perdition,
that you were sold to the nations;
but it was because you*⁷⁴ provoked God to anger
that you were committed to your opponents.
7 For you provoked your* Maker the everlasting God⁷⁵
after you* sacrificed to demons, and not to God.
8 But you* forsook the Perpetual God who nourished⁷⁶ you,⁷⁷
but you* also grieved Jerusalem, the one who reared you* up.
9 For she saw coming upon you the anger from Yahweh God;⁷⁸ and she said:
"Hear, you sojourners of Zion!
For⁷⁹ God brought great eternal⁸⁰ mourning upon me, 10 for I saw the captivity of my sons and my daughters, which the Perpetual Lord⁸¹ has brought on my people.⁸²
11 For with gladness I nourished them;
but with weeping and mourning and groaning⁸³ I sent them out.
12 Let no one rejoice-over me,
the widow, and bereft of many;
I was desolated by the sins of my children,
because of the sins of my sons,⁸⁴
since they deviated from the law of Yahweh God.⁸⁵
13 But they did not know⁸⁶ his righteous-decrees and judgments;⁸⁷
nor did they walk in roads of God's instructions, nor did they even set-foot to the paths of discipline in his righteousness.⁸⁸

- 14 "Let the sojourners of Zion come, and all of you* remember the captivity of my sons and daughters,⁸⁹
which the Perpetual God brought-upon them.
15 For he brought-upon them a nation from afar,
a nation shameless and of foreign-tongued,
which was not made ashamed of an elderly-man,
nor had mercy for a little-boy-or-girl.
16 And they led-away the beloved ones of this widow, and have left her desolated,⁹⁰ without daughters.
17 But what am I able to do to help you?*"
18 For the one who brought these evils upon you* must himself deliver you* of our your* enemies' hand.
19 Walk, my⁹¹ children, walk:
For I was left desolate.
20 I undressed myself of the gown of the peace,
but dressed myself in a sackcloth for my beseeching;
I myself will shout to the Perpetual *God*⁹² in all my days.
21 "Take courage, my children; cry out to God, and he will deliver you* out of the sovereignty of the enemies'
hand.⁹³
22 For I hoped in the Perpetual God for your* salvation, and joy came to me from the Holy-One, because of the act-of-mercy which will quickly come to you* from your* perpetual savior.⁹⁴
23 For with mourning and weeping I sent you* forth, but God from whom I received you⁹⁵ will give you* back to me with joyfulness and gladness into the age.
24 For even as the sojourners of Zion have presently seen you* taken captive,
so they will quickly see Yahweh⁹⁶ that the salvation from God will come-upon you*
with great glory and the splendor of the Perpetual Yahweh⁹⁷ God.
25 "My children, bear the anger which longsuffering,
for it came-upon you* from Yahweh⁹⁸ God;
your*⁹⁹ enemies persecuted you,*
and you will quickly see their perdition
and trample upon their necks.¹⁰⁰ 26 My delicate children have trodden rough roads, carried off by their enemies¹⁰¹ like sheep in a raid.
27 Take courage, my children; call out to God!
For he¹⁰² who brought this on you¹⁰³ will remember you.
28 For as your mind has been disposed to stray from God, turn back ten times the more to seek him.
29 For he who has brought these evils on you will,
with your salvation, bring you perpetual gladness."
30 Take courage, Jerusalem!
He who named you is your comfort.
31 Terrified are those who did evil to you,
and who rejoiced at your fall;
32 terrified are the cities where your children were enslaved,
you shall rejoice in their downfall,
terrified are those who harmed you,¹⁰⁴
terrified is the city which received your sons.
33 For as that city rejoiced at your fall,

CHAPTER 5

- 1 Jerusalem, take off your garment of your mourning and your misery and suffering,¹⁰⁸
 and put on the good-appearance of the glory to the age from Yahweh God.¹⁰⁹
- 2 Wrapped in the double-cloak of righteousness from God,

- 3 For God will display your splendor everywhere under the heavens:¹¹² for your name will be called by God to the age:

 and “Glory of the Reverence-of-God.”¹¹³
- 5 Stand-up, Jerusalem, and stand upon the heights;¹¹⁴
 and look to the east and see your children, gathered and coming to you¹¹⁵ from the east to the west
 at the word of the Holy-One, rejoicing that they are remembered by God.
- 6 For led away on foot by their enemies they left you:
 but God will bring them back to you borne aloft in glory as on royal thrones.¹¹⁶
- 7 For God has arranged, that every lofty mountain and everlasting dune¹¹⁷ be made low,
 and that ravines be filled to level ground,
that Israel may advance secure in the glory of God.
- 8 Now even the forests and every fragrant kind of tree¹¹⁸ have overshadowed Israel at God’s command;

 with his¹²⁰ act-of-mercy and righteousness for company.
